

Dazzling Sun
by Naomi C Kenny

Sun-glasses are created from freckles, perched across a nose.
To pinpoint Taurus, on its way home.

The hustle, the ruble,
The breakdown of walls,
to fall in, with the breaking of the dried dirt.
The echos, the shouts.

The forest walled in & out.
The daises chain is a crown for a ladies forehead.
Bring the cards, red and black to the deck-
where chess is more than a game.
And the process is a match.
